Dr. Slidrecht is presently completing a Doctor of Divinity dissertation titled Heaven Now? The Impact of the Prosperity Gospel on Pentecostal Eschatology and Christian Hope, continuing his research into the theological intersections between prosperity, suffering, and eternal expectation. In addition, he is currently authoring a new volume on demonology, exploring the biblical framework for spiritual warfare and deliverance in contemporary theology, and has in the past weeks begun developing a new doctoral-level project on the Book of Revelation with the goal of interpreting the text through Scripture alone—allowing the Bible to interpret the Bible.

Beyond academia, Dr. Sliedrecht is also a business owner and the founder of Venter Cranes, a Canadian-based overhead crane service and inspection company established to advance the Kingdom of God by serving as a financial resource for ministry and missions. Through this work, he demonstrates that business, when stewarded with integrity and purpose, can be a powerful instrument for Gospel impact.

Over the years, Dr. Sliedrecht has ministered extensively across the world—in Ghana, Burkina Faso, Uganda, India, Mexico, Ecuador, and Honduras—equipping pastors, training leaders, and proclaiming the Gospel to the unreached. He has also assisted in the planting of more than eight churches globally, serving both evangelistically and strategically to strengthen local ministries. His goal remains steadfast: to reach the unreached with the truth of the Gospel and to build churches rooted in sound doctrine and authentic faith.

Through his ongoing Truth in an Age of Compromise series and related ministry, Dr. Sliedrecht continues to write, teach, and speak with a burden to see believers grounded in biblical truth, rightly dividing the Word of God, and living with faith, humility, and discernment.

As an evangelist and Bible teacher, he proclaims the Gospel with clarity and compassion, a ministry marked by his lifelong motto:

“No hype. No headlines. Just Scripture.”

He and his wife, Vanessa, have been married since 2000 and are blessed with four children. Together, they serve the Lord with integrity and a passion to see believers equipped, churches strengthened, and Christ exalted across the nations.
